MORE
TO LOVE
THAN YOU
EVER
IMAGINED

▼ The Six Senses, Douro Valley

This is the current grande dame of luxury hotels in Portugal, and for good reason might we add. Located in one of Portugal's most celebrated wine regions, The Six Senses is perched on a hilltop in a 19th century manor. As a brand, their focus is on wellbeing and this Portuguese edition is no exemption to the rule – you can spend your afternoons making your own body scrubs or perfecting your yoga form with views of the valley. The food is very much garden-to-table and the hotel can even arrange a romantic picnic for you.

▲ Octant Furnas, The Azores

With direct flights from Faro to Ponta Delgada, it couldn't be easier to travel to the Hawaii of Europe. The Azores is an adventurer's playground with whale watching and dramatic volcanic scenery. Time to get steamy at the Octant Furnas, by this we mean bathing in the hotel's hot springs, of course. This romantic boutique's interiors pay homage to the island's natural beauty with accent walls showing off waterfalls and calderas, plant pots aplenty and natural colourways. You can also bring your furbabies here, who will actually be VIP'd more than you!

Dá Licença, The Alentejo

If this place isn't on your radar, it should be. Dá Licença is the labour of love from a successful duo. Vítor Borges and Franck have brought their aesthetic ideas, sensibilities, tastes and ways of looking at the world to create a unique hotel noticeable for its commitment to quality and artistry. Plus it's adults only and a real place to unplug from the outside world.

All of these hotels are available to book through Pippa Rose Travel, who will tailor make your trip and ensure you are treated during your stay with a complimentary upgrade, or a food and beverage credit, or a massage.
